Hello again INHWE Members! We are thrilled to share that we have received an abundance of fantastic feedback for our Cardiff 2023 event. On behalf of the Advisory Board, myself and David would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to all those who provided outstanding support throughout the event. The professionalism and enthusiasm displayed by everyone involved in the program ensured that the academic content of the conference reached an exceptionally high standard. Thus far, the event has garnered an approval rating of over 90%, making it one of our highest-rated events to date. This remarkable achievement is a testament to the hard work and dedication of our chairs, facilitators, members, and all attendees who made the conference truly special.

We would also like to extend our congratulations to Shahad Abdulkhaleq for her research on "Changes in Metacognitive Accuracy Post-IPE Simulation: An Interprofessional Perspective" and to René Botha for his outstanding work on "Radiography Students' Evaluation of a Structured Interprofessional Education Program," which led them to win the prestigious Lesley Diack Award for Outstanding Research. You can find more detailed information about both projects in the dedicated abstract book.

We are particularly delighted to receive such positive feedback in several key areas, including the interprofessional nature of the event, the overall positive and friendly atmosphere, the excellent research presented, the exceptional support provided by the session chairs, and the positive reception of the INHWE network session. These comments truly affirm our commitment to fostering collaboration and excellence in healthcare education. Once again, we express our sincere gratitude to everyone who contributed to the success of the conference. Your support and participation have made a significant impact, and we are honored to have you as part of our community.
