Call Open for ATBH in Cyprus

Hello again INHWE Members! The Call for Abstracts is now open for All Together Better Health (ATBH XII) 2027, taking place from 14–18 June 2027 in Nicosia, Cyprus, at European University Cyprus. Educators, practitioners, researchers, policy-makers, service users, students, early-career researchers, and community partners are warmly invited to submit abstracts and share research, innovation, practice, partnerships and new thinking in interprofessional education, collaborative practice, and health workforce development.

Under the conference theme “Collaborative Virtues: Building Resilient Teams Through Shared Values,” submissions are invited across a range of formats, including classic presentations, agora presentations, posters, workshops, and panel sessions, with abstracts due by 19 October 2026. Full details and submission guidance are available on the ATBH 2027 website.
