

H-Pass Final Conference

Hello again INHWE Members! After three years of cross-border collaboration and innovation, the H-PASS Project Final Conference will take place on 28–29 April 2026 at Università Cattolica del Sacro Cuore in Rome and online. Open to the public, policy-makers, and health professionals, the event, which is completely free to attend, will present the project's final results, including the training of over 450 health professionals, and bring together consortium partners, Digital Change Agents, and European experts to discuss digital skills, sustainability, transferability, and the future of healthcare transformation across the EU.
